Dedication Weekend in Indianapolis

Foundation President Hilary Salatich introduces Grand President Lissa Bradford on the terrace of the new headquarters where dedication ceremonies took place.

Going home

Our hopes and vision have led us home. The home is new but the foundations are built on OLD traditions. Just as the founding of Kappa Alpha Theta 113 years ago in Greencastle, IN was an idea whose time had come, the building of a permanent headquarters not far from our birthplace, is a twentieth century dream that has been realized. We have a new headquarters because it was needed and because the time had come to implement an idea, many years in the dreaming, and finally a planning stage.

The last carpet had been laid, the instant turf had taken hold to form a grassy area outside, the interiors had been photographed and the ribbon was in place waiting to be snipped by Grand President Lissa Bradford and Foundation President Hilary Salatich. Tanya Beck, Alpha, an Episcopal priest stepped forward on the terrace and delivered the invocation to the 400 Thetas and friends who had come to the dedication.

Not to be satisfied with a dedication day a full weekend of activities preceded Sunday's ceremonies. Saturday morning Indiana Thetas joined with those who had come from all parts of the country, for a bus trip to Alpha chapter. The tour included a visit to the Founders' Memorial Garden, a gift from the Foundation to DePauw to commemorate our centennial in 1970.

Then came the Saturday night banquet with Thetas, husbands and special guests attending. Gamma chapter

New headquarters . . . a salute to the future at Butler in Indianapolis provided the entertainment "Theta Through the Years." Lissa Bradford's dedication address, "Home at Last" reviewed the events that led to this special weekend. She explained how, by chance we are in the right place at the right time. As Thetas from Maine to California fly their kites in honor of the occasions she said, "Excuse us World our pride is showing, but that's what this weekend is all about."

How Kappa Alpha Theta got from Greencastle to Indianapolis 40 miles away in 113 years is a story in itself. The growth of an idea is not always easy to trace. In this case, the idea of a fraternity for women, patterned somewhat after the men's fraternities and having a Greek name is credited to the four young women at Asbury College who decided that the Greek letters KAO would symbolize a special kind of friendship built on inspirational goals and ideals. The idea spread rapidly. Not only did the four Thetas at Asbury establish two other chapters that same year, but other Greek letter fraternities for women were formed, at other colleges.

By 1901 L. Pearle Green who had become a Theta at Stanford was elected Grand Secretary. Her home in Ithaca became the first Theta headquarters . . . at least the business was carried on from there. That arrangement continued until 1940 when far-sighted Adelaide Sinclair, our first and only Canadian Grand President found an office for the fraternity on Wacker Drive in Chicago.

At that point the modern administration of Kappa Alpha Theta began. Twenty years later we moved to our first location in Evanston on Sherman Avenue, later moving to Davis Street. By this time the number of chapters had passed 100. We had automated machinery in the office and subscribed to a computer service for membership record keeping and college chapter accounting. All those years we were renters. It was time to own a home of our own. Research indicated that Indianapolis had the most to offer as the site for our new Central Office.

Why Indiana? When all the practical considerations of a location were evaluated, several other cities presented equal credentials. But there was one criterion which could not escape the minds and the hearts of the members of two search committees in the past 20 years—a test which prompted both groups to select Indianapolis as the most desirable site. The deciding factor? Heritage . . . Theta's past . . . Theta's beginning. Going home. In her address at the Dedication Banquet, Grand President Lissa Bradford quoted from Robert Frost's "Death of the Hired Man." "Home is the place where if you want to go there, they have to take you in."

We did not have to be persuaded. The tug of the kite was strong in Indiana. It was a plan that was meant to be, an idea whose time had come. Perhaps that is why Thetas working together were able to build a permanent home with our own resources in one year. It's good to be "Back Home in Indiana."

Although much has been made of the multi-purpose aspect of the new headquarters—training center, meeting facility and limited overnight and food preparation accommodation, it's main function is business. For the first time both the Fraternity and the Foundation have adequate, efficient work space. Office areas are tied together with navy and camel carpeting throughout, neutral walls and wall panels with color accents of Theta materials and bright poster art. The Foundation Suite is named for Evelyn Widman Tunncliffe, Eta, first president of the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

For overnight accommodation the two sitting rooms each contain sofas which can be converted to beds. They supplement the second floor dormitory-type area planned for use during training sessions for traveling consultants and resident counselors. Contributions from the Nashville Alumnae Chapter and the Dallas Alumnae Chapter made possible the rooms which bear their names.

Houston Room

An up-to-date archives facility is the gift of the Houston alumnae. It provides a work room and processing and storage area for documents and memorabilia. Preservation of our heritage and accessibility of historic records to responsible researchers is now possible. The cheerful looking lounge, a gift of Ohio Thetas is a place to relax—a staff lunch room, a breakfast room for overnight guests. A kitchen is adjacent, and is designed mainly for catered meals for those attending meetings as well as for staff and office use.

ALBERTA

From July 1 to 11, 1983, the University of Alberta in conjunction with the City of Edmonton hosted the World University Games and Theta was there to help.

The World University Games, or Universiade, are held every two years for university students aged 17-28. This year approximately 4500 athletes from over 85 countries participated, making the Universiade second in size only to the Summer Olympics. Because of its magnitude, a volunteer force of more than 1500 was needed, and it was through this volunteer army that many Beta Chi Thetas helped to welcome the world.

The ways in which individual Thetas aided the Universiade varied. Three members—Leslie Garland, Jane Kellock, and Karen Radostits took part in the opening and closing ceremonies. Tracy Airth, Leslie Garland, and Marjorie Rider chose to help out in the capacity of drivers—volunteers who make sure athletes, officials and VIP's get where they're going.

Two of perhaps the most coveted volunteer positions were held by Sharon Pickett and Simonetta Berretti. Sharon served as reporter for the Village News, a paper designed to keep athletes and officials up to date. Simonetta worked more closely with VIPs and dignitaries, taking one under her wing throughout the duration of the games, performing well her duty as hostess protocol.

All of the Beta Chi Thetas involved enjoyed the experience and took full advantage of the opportunity to let Kappa Alpha Theta shine in the community.

AUBURN

An innovative scholarship program sent Gamma Omega members off to a good start this past year, emphasizing the positive aspects of good scholarship.

In an effort to promote the observance of quiet hours, the scholarship committee decided to turn the hall lights off during designated quiet hours. One successful idea deserves another and soon the dormitory study room was turned into a study hall two nights a week. More incentives in terms of recognition for academic achievements have played a role in boosting Gamma Omega's scholarship spirit and results. Those scoring 100 on a major test were admitted to the "100 Club."

During final exams, winter quarter, the scholarship committee hosted study breaks and served "brain food" to break the study monotony. Everything from raisins (for those raisin' their grades) to marathon bars for the seniors who have stuck it out were components of Gamma Omega's scholarship banquet entitled, "Theta's Cream of the Crop Celebration," topped off with ice cream and a cherry.

Our standing in Panhellenic rose two places winter quarter.

BAYLOR

Selected gentlemen received invitations announcing "A Theta Has a Crush on You" and members of Epsilon Epsilon at Baylor University cashed in on the fun at an evening casino party. Spinning around the roulette wheel, the marble landed on lucky numbers and sliding across the black jack table, the cards hit 21, as Thetas secretly gazed at their "crushes."

Dressed in tailored tuxedo shirts, black bow ties and black mini-skirts, Theta hostesses served soft drinks to their sisters and guests. With a reputation for serving good food, the Thetas offered cheese balls, barbecue sausage and a variety of sweets.

Some of the guests were absorbed in intense concentration on their betting while others moved to the dance floor where music was provided by a disc jockey. With a ratio of three men to each Theta, Baylor Thetas didn't miss out on too much attention. After breaking the casino bank, the guests pooled their chips in preparation for the final auction.

Departing with prizes of dinner reservations and record albums, the guests beat the gambling odds and Epsilon Epsilon beat the myth that alcohol must be served for a successful and entertaining evening.

CALIFORNIA-RIVERSIDE

At seven a.m. on a Sunday in November, Delta Psi pledges tumbled out of bed into the kitchen to cook breakfast for the members who would arrive in their pajamas at ten. The Pledge Pancake Breakfast was the first of several non-alcoholic social events sponsored by the UC Riverside Thetas.

Members of the 1982 Fall pledge class put the final crepe paper streamers on the front door and set the last stuffed animals by the fireplace as the first sleepy members arrived. The cozy, early morning atmosphere provided a chance to escape the pressure of mid-terms.

Dyed hair and miniskirt were the norm for another social, the Phi Kappa Sigma/Kappa Alpha Theta "Nu" wave party. Traveling Consultant Sheila Clause was a guest at this social which included a costume contest and new wave dance contest and nobody missed the alcohol.

These two events were highlights of Delta Psi's social season featuring good food, good fun and the absence of alcohol.

Theta twin stars joined with Hollywood stars in a benefit planned by Delta Psi chapter for the Institute of Logopedics last May.

University of California-Riverside Thetas raised $135 for our national philanthropy by attending a filming of the "New Battlestars" game show at NBC Studios in Burbank. Guest stars included Lynn Redgrave (House Calls) and Denise Alexander (General Hospital).

Delta Psi members also gained a few extra benefits from the program. The chapter was mentioned on a later show and the studio conducted special contestant interviews after the filming. Judy Beaudin, fraternity education chairman was named a contestant.

Lee Ann Reynolds

Carolyn O'Connor, Penny Eastman, Sally Pico and Diana Gregory, Cal-Riverside Thetas line up to enter NBC studios to attend a show benefiting the Institute of Logopedics.

Collegians write about important chapter events and achievements the past school year.

CLEMSON

Delta Phi chapter at Clemson University has seen several changes as the newly elected officers enthusiastically pursue their roles. No longer are cabinet meetings simply an organization of the week's chapter meetings. Instead president Cindy Pacewic has seen the need for leadership seminars to improve the officers' ability to motivate and make use of her committee, as well as to be a good leader. Each meeting holds a different leadership topic and is presented by a member of the cabinet.

Martha Carr, marshal, has added new dimensions to weekly chapter meetings by reviewing portions of the ritual to refresh us on Theta heritage. Also Historian Paula Kroft has begun to give us insight into our ritual by reading myths based on Greek characters.

COLORADO COLLEGE

The Beta Omega chapter at Colorado College has enjoyed several non-alcoholic social functions this year as we implement the Alcoholic Awareness program of the Fraternity. Particularly successful have been our infamous potluck dinners, combining two of Theta's most loved activities—cooking and eating. Sometimes the potluck dinner are just for Thetas, other times we invite another sorority and once we held an Invite-a-boy Italian Potluck. Other events which were a success without serving alcohol were skating parties, serenades, pledge mom and daughter picnics, and informal get-togethers for pizza and soap operas in the lodge.

Away from the strictly social event, the chapter participates in Colorado College Dialogue and the Special Olympics. Dialogue is a valiant effort to raise money for the college by dialing CC alumnae throughout the country. Not only do we request contributions from alumnae but our conversations take on a dialogue about CC now and at the time the alumnae was in school at Colorado College.

For the Special Olympics each member of the chapter is responsible for two or three handicapped children who participate in the Special Olympics. We are their cheering section—giving them support, inspiration and praise.

DE PAUW

Everyone at Alpha has been busy putting a smile on many a face and a glow in many a heart throughout Greencastle, ever since Nancy Pickard, service chairman, has taken office. She has taken advantage of De Pauw's connection with many Greencastle Community Projects and through her enthusiasm and effort has involved quite a few Alpha Thetas in such projects as these: Infant stimulation is for children up to three years old. A college student comes to the family residence once a week to help develop the children's cognitive, motor and language skills as well as teach the parents how to stimulate their children's learning abilities on their own. Headstart which is for children between 3 and 5 who do not attend pre-school, is a program intended to provide the same type of learning and play opportunities that pre-school would. Thetas who participate come for an hour every week to play with the children and practice good hygiene, manners, and basic motor skills with them. Student Friend gives elementary school children a chance to feel special by developing a friendship with a college student. It is like having an instant big brother or sister on hand once a week to pay attention to them, lend an ear, help them sort through problems, and share happy times.

The Nursing Home Project involves weekly visitation to one of the local nursing homes where the students talk to and share with the patients, as well as help them with various tasks like letter writing.

And to add to all this happiness that is being spread by Theta, Nancy Pickard has initiated yet another service project for Alpha Thetas to participate in. Made possible by the Putnam County Mental Health Association's Friend-to-Friend project, Alpha chapter has adopted our very own "Granny." Every week two Thetas volunteer to visit with her at the nursing home, send her a friendly note, or call her so she will know how much we care about her. Needless to say, we are having a terrific time. It has lifted all our spirits and has made yet another person in our town happy because of Theta! And that makes us smile.

DICKINSON

One key ingredient in a chapter "recipe" is the sociability of members, and Dickinson Thetas love getting together, whether it be to share talents, fly kites, or to participate in that favorite pastime, eating!

Sharing is another key ingredient in the recipe, and Thetas shared talents with each other in a pre-Christmas social, and a fireside talent show. While sipping hot chocolate and heating s'mores over a blazing fireplace, sisters listened to performances on the piano and guitar, watched skits and heard Spanish Christmas songs. Afterwards, everyone joined in singing her own personal Christmas favorites, starting off the season with a great feeling of sharing and Theta camaraderie.

Thetas like to socialize and they are always ready to use food as an excuse to get together! Along with having study breaks with other sororities, Dickinson Thetas held a B.Y.O.B. party . . . Bring Your Own Banana. The evening was really an ice cream social and seems headed for tradition at Dickinson.

After all that eating, a little activity was indicated. On a beautiful day in May we held our first annual Kite Flying Day! Yellow and black kites dotted the sky and along with being terrifically fun, it was symbolic as well. So two Theta traditions have been launched in our first year at Dickinson College.

FRESNO STATE UNIVERSITY

"And the recipient of the 1983 Hallmark Award is . . . Kappa Alpha Theta." These welcome and exciting words rang out at the All Greek Picnic last spring at Fresno State. For the second time in the three year history of the award, the Gamma Chi chapter was the recipient. Presented by Dean William H. Corcoran, Dean of Student Affairs at FSU, the Hallmark Award is awarded annually to the fraternity and sorority which have consistently demonstrated high quality and outstanding achievement as a chapter.

The sole basis for consideration of this award is a letter to the Dean in which each individual chapter indicates in detail the bases on which their chapter should be considered. Letters of application are reviewed by an ad hoc committee and recommendations are then made to the Dean.

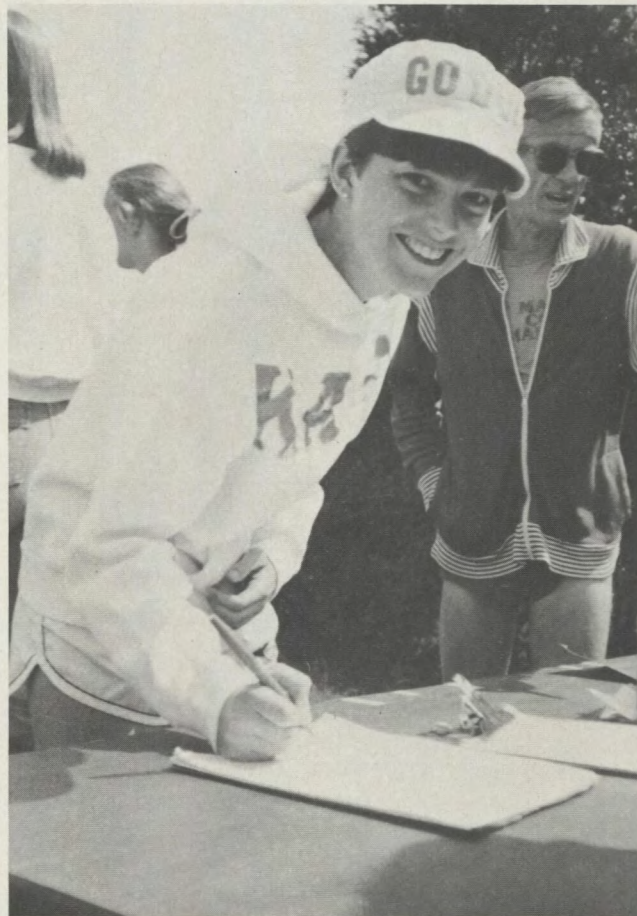

A get acquainted party

Gamma Chi chapter holds many social functions and exchanges but there was one such party this past year of which the chapter has particularly fond memories. Spring semester we invited a colonizing fraternity to dinner. Since most of the members were new to Fresno as well as Fresno State, it was a perfect opportunity to meet other students and Greeks. After dinner the group moved into the living room for socializing and Gamma Chi introduced its famous M-n-M game, used to get acquainted during rush parties. Each person takes a handful of M-n-M candy and tells something about himself for each piece. It works to build new friendships. Our chapter now feels as close to this fraternity as we are with some fraternities that have been around for years and they consider us the "friendliest girls on campus."

DUKE

Imagine a clear, sunny day with one large group of people poised behind a horizontal line. On your marks; ready; get set; GO!

Such was the start of the 2.3 mile, kite-shaped race known as the Theta Fun Run. With its name printed on the back of red, white and blue t-shirts sponsored by Pepsi Free, this charitable event raised a profit of $400 for Logopedics, while attracting participants of all types from Duke and the Durham community. People caught up in this enthusiasm included a fifty-nine-year-old Duke professor, a fifteen-year-old Durham girl and all types of Duke Greeks and independents.

This Theta pledge project for Greek Week was a source of Duke unification as seen from the diversity of 230 entries. With help from nearly every Theta and pledge, including the thirty members who ran, the race was an overwhelming success. In fact, Beta Rho won this year's Greek Week, demonstrating both its spirit and energy.

EASTERN KENTUCKY

At Eastern Kentucky University the Delta Upsilon chapter maintains its members on a dormitory floor commonly referred to as 7th Heaven. At each end of the floor Thetas seem to know each other really well. However, those living at opposite ends of the hall do not know each other as well. In an effort to increase the closeness and fraternity bond among all the occupants of the Theta floor, a neighborhood appreciation week was held.

For neighborhood appreciation week, each pledge/member drew the name of another Theta at the opposite end of the hall. All week the secret neighbor gave clues and gifts to her sister whose name had been drawn. The clues were about themselves to help acquaint their secret sisters with the sisters down the hall. At the end of the week identities were divulged and the secret neighbor was treated to a lunch, dinner, or a night on the town. The Thetas in 7th Heaven have thus become better acquainted, strengthening the bonds of friendship within the chapter.

FLORIDA

Delta Thetas had a very busy and productive spring semester, but, we were definitely our busiest the third weekend in February. Not only did the University of Florida Kappa Alpha Thetas host the District XVIII meeting, we also held our second annual Theta Tennis Classic the same weekend.

Theta Classic was run by Barbara Lorch. She was assisted by Theta Kim Clingan, who is a member of the UF varsity tennis team. Kim ran the tournament and supervised the matches of 80 entrants. This year we added a "Theta Beauty and Brawn" pageant to our kickoff festivities. Both the party and the pageant were a great success thanks to kickoff party chairman Laura DeBruce, who recruited contestants from many campus organizations. Every chapter member bought a Theta Classic T-Shirt to give 100% support to the 1983 Classic. We raised $1,000 for the Institute of Logopedics.

If a Delta Theta wasn't at the tennis courts helping out she was sure to be found attending the District XVIII meeting, chaired by Kris Thomas. Susanne Abele

FLORIDA STATE

This year Beta Nu took a hard line on scholarship. Scholarship chairman Jan Jaffee worked closely with pledges and actives monitoring their grades and passing on incentives. In January, Allison Evans took over Jan's responsibilities and advanced the scholarship program one step further.

Each semester Beta Nu has a scholarship banquet to honor those who have consistently demonstrated high academic standards. Awards and certificates are given to Dean's List students and members whose grades have improved during the semester.

Dean Winters, Dean of F.S.U.'s Basic Studies Division was the guest speaker at a scholarship banquet where awards were given for highest grade point in the chapter which went to Susan Ricke and 4.0 students were recognized. At this time the Marion Black Award in memory of Dr. Marion Black, long time adviser to Beta Nu, was presented to Patti Cullens, junior and Cary Hughes, senior for scholarship, leadership and contributions to the chapter. The Marie T. Schomberg Scholarship was awarded to Leslie Bennett and the Black and Gold award from the standards committee went to Jean Kosik.

A new program, "Majors' Night," was instituted at Beta Nu. This involved the seniors in various courses of study speaking on the prerequisites for the courses, what could be expected as a learning experience and the directions such a field of study might take.

The past year has been very successful for Beta Nu's scholarship program with new chapter awareness and member participation being the positive results.

A terrific T.C.

For a week last winter Beta Nu was visited by a very special guest—Traveling Consultant Sherri Huber. Her stay at 510 West Park Avenue brought new insight and renewed enthusiasm to Beta Nu.

Her visit began with the Officer Transition Workshop. There Sherri met with outgoing and incoming officers and advisers, sharing her suggestions for improvement.

The week continued and Sherri met in greater depth with our officers as well as in separate meetings with freshmen, sophomore, junior and senior classes.

Throughout the week Sherri got to know Beta Nu. Leisure time spent with us—jogging, venturing into Tallahassee's night spots and just plain visiting was marked by enthusiasm and optimism that rubbed off on all of us. Then Monday rolled around and Sherri had to leave for another chapter on her busy itinerary. Sherri left Beta Nu but she continued to check up and help us throughout the semester via correspondence. She became our friend who will be remembered for a long time to come.

Beta Theta has profited greatly from the visit of Traveling Consultant Liz Krimendahl last spring. Liz's knowledge and experience helped to strengthen officer performance and development goals and means of attaining them for the chapter.

With the confidence instilled by Liz and guidance in efficient chapter operation, the Beta Theta chapter returned for the fall term, a much smoother operating unit. Also by telling us how other chapters handled the various chapter functions as well as occasional problems, she helped us to understand that we were not the only chapter that had to make adjustments.

We realized that improvement would come only with working on her suggestions and we have implemented her lessons and continued in the pattern she set for us. One lesson we learned is that a chapter's success and happiness as a group has to first come from each individual member and pledge having a positive attitude about herself and the chapter. Now we are all working toward the same goal and we congratulate Liz for her fine work with Beta Theta.

LAWRENCE

Last May the Alpha Psi chapter held a picnic with the men of Sigma Phi Epsilon, for the children of the Big Brother and Big Sister program in Appleton, WI. This is a program in which an adult member of the community "adopts" a young child as a little brother or sister. The picnic was held at nearby Peabody Park where there was plenty of recreational equipment for the children. The frisbees, baseballs and balloons brought by the Thetas and Sig Eps provided a change of pace from the teter-totters, swings and slides. With fun and food abounding the day was a great success for both the Lawrence students and the children.

A big change in Greek Week activities highlighted the spring semester for Alpha Mu. In previous years, Thetas had participated in the sing competition of the Sing/Fling performance that culminates Greek Week. This year however, they teamed with the Kappa Alphas in the fling skits.

"Flinging" called for the creation of a musical production, complete with singing and dancing, that related to the overall theme of Greek Week '83. The theme was "Greeks Find a Clue." The clue given to the Thetas and the KAs was Mexico in the 1940s and out of this a comical skit including Lucy Ricardo, Hogans Heros and Carmen Miranda was created.

The effort claimed the talents and resources of everyone. Intricate dance sequences and musical accompaniment were worked out. Elaborate sets and costumes were made and the acting abilities of both houses were perfected.

Shelle Stewart claimed the Best Actress Award for her performance as Lucy.

The newly elected Beta Pi officers decided to include in their goals and objectives for the following year a social function once a term, which would be exclusively for Thetas. The officers felt that by making the social function mandatory, the things that usually get in the way of voluntary get-togethers such as studying and outside activities would be eliminated. The spring term function planned by Carolyn Miller, standards chairman was to be a one night retreat at Lake Lansing but due to rain it was held at the Theta house.

A week before the retreat, each Theta chose another Theta that she wished to get to know better. During the week a special effort was made to spend extra time with the Theta she chose to get to know. Making time for one person was a step toward making time for everyone which was the main purpose of the retreat.

After dinner the Thetas broke up into discussion groups to answer questions posed by the standards committee. Later each one told something special about the Theta she got to know better during the week. Through such activities, Beta Pi is pulling together and taking time for one another.

MIAMI

A responsible attitude toward alcohol at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio is shared by Gamma Upsilon chapter. The Miami Theta's alcohol awareness program has two sides: one, specific alcohol awareness education, and the other, non-drinking oriented social functions. A change this year in the Ohio state drinking age from 18 to 19 made the Miami Thetas even more aware—the new law meant that most of our pledges and many sophomores could not legally drink alcoholic beverages at our social functions.

At chapter meetings this year, fraternity education and social chairmen took turns emphasizing responsible drinking through speakers, skits, and discussions. Our pledges at the fall retreat heard a guest speaker on alcohol and its problems.

The specific "awareness" programs were complemented by Theta activities—the ones that have from year to year always been the most fun, and that have never included drinking. Our budgets for all-chapter events have always gone for food or transportation instead of liquor. On bid night in the fall, the new pledges and chapter sophomores gather in our suite for a pizza party. Our canoe trip in September is great fun—Thetas, sunshine, and s'mores afterwards! The big little picnic in October is more of the same—just fun together, no drinking involved. At a fraternity party with the Betas this year we went ice-skating. Other traditional Gamma Upsilon activities that put recreation instead of party focus on things are kite-fly and picnic, and Pansy Dessert/Senior Farewell. These all-Theta events continue to be the most fun, most looked-forward-to activities every year and no drinking is involved.

The two aspects of our program go well together. Officers get their "responsible drinking" messages at meetings or serious times, and when we're together, the focus is on fun, not drinking.

MINNESOTA

As Upsilon Thetas prepare to finish spring quarter we are thinking ahead towards fall rush and new pledges. Fall is a time for new experiences, especially for new students. One of those experiences that could have far reaching repercussions is exposure to alcohol consumption. Parties, dormitory rooms and bars are all part of the college students exposure to alcohol. To make incoming pledges as well as active members more aware of the problems and responsibilities in this area is sometimes overlooked as part of chapter education.

Dara Bosckis, fraternity education chairman and her committee are presenting alcohol awareness programs during the 1983-84 school year. This past year Upsilon heard a speaker from CAPP (Chemical Abuse Prevention through Peers) and a forty-five minute workshop entitled "Creative Intoxication." "Intoxication in this reference means non-chemically induced exhilaration or "high," a natural stimulation derived from personal success, ability to cope on the strength of your own resources as a healthy body, without turning to artificial inducements to simulate the illusion of well-being.

Other programs tentatively selected from CAPP, are "Being there—How to Recognize and Deal with an Alcohol Problem" and "The Alcohol Game," which asks questions about alcohol use and its effects in a game show format.

As for non-alcoholic social functions, the chapter has planned a party with a fraternity, and another one with a sorority. Upsilon believes that the several faceted alcohol awareness program being instituted will not only benefit the chapter but the individual members as well.

In recognition of its impressive community service record, Rho chapter was presented with the 1983 Madeline Gerard Philanthropy Award, presented annually by the Nebraska Panhellenic Association to the sorority with the top philanthropy program.

This year's projects included Plantasia (an Autumn plant sale with proceeds donated to the Foundation) and the Theta-Farm House Wheelchair Basketball Tournament. The tournament which was a three-day marathon, allowed all campus organizations to compete against the sponsoring teams. Teams that participated in the event were required to get pledges or donations. The event raised $2,000 for the Cedars Home for Children.

In addition, Rho Thetas participated in Honey Sunday and sold 300 jars of honey to benefit the Nebraska Association for Retarded Citizens. Also an in-house clothing drive gave Thetas a chance to donate unwanted clothes to the Goodwill.

NEVADA

Homecoming at the University of Nevada was especially hectic this year. President Ronald Reagan visited the campus that weekend for a whistle-stop on his tour of the Western States.

Many Beta Mu Thetas were involved in the preparations for the presidential visit. One fourth of student government was composed of Thetas, making it difficult for any member to be uninvolved.

Secret Service agents arrived one week prior to the President's visit. Fraternity and sorority representatives were briefed and given special seating tickets for the speech.

The real work began four days prior to the event. Theta members stuffed napkins, painted posters, decorated the quadrangle and blocked out building windows for security purposes.

The morning of the event many Thetas were up at 5:00 a.m. to put the finishing touches on all their hard work. The speech and rally were scheduled for noon, so many girls sat and did their homework after they had finished, to assure the best seats.

The hard work paid off. The President and his officials were pleased with the reception given to them by the University of Nevada students. The great success was due to the combined effort of student government, Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Council.

Beta Mu President Kim Harney received a personal letter from President Reagan thanking her for the Theta support. This was a homecoming that will be remembered by the Nevada Thetas for a long time.

OREGON

Alpha Xi seems to have discovered the formula for outstanding scholarship this year. With a revamped scholarship program Alpha Xi climbed the University of Oregon scholastic scale to rate second overall in sorority grades. In addition we were named the most academically improved sorority at the annual Panhellenic Scholarship Brunch.

Hilary Gerdes, scholarship chairman, initiated the new program last fall. The pledge program was the first to be reinvigorated with an emphasis on study time at the chapter house. Pledges were issued study cards which they had signed each time they arrived bearing books. With a mandatory twice a week study session, the pledges saw improved grades as well as dependable interaction with members. In addition, a course reference box was created and in-house tutors encouraged. Much to Alpha Xi's pleasure, handing out awards has become quite a job at Scholarship Dinner.

Alpha Xi has discovered the rewards of working hard at our studies. Our academic success is a source of pride to ourselves, as well as Theta.

OREGON STATE

Grander is not always greater. Projects on a large scale certainly present a positive image of the sorority system and promote the integrity and worth of Theta. But sometimes, the true objective of a project, especially a philanthropy project can be lost in a maze of publicity, complicated activities, and lofty dollar figures. "Philanthropy" comes from the Greek words "philo" and "anthropos." "Philo" means "love of" and "anthropos" means "man." In combination these two become "love of man." And loving your fellow man doesn't always require a big production or a shower of dollars.

Beta Epsilon Thetas experienced the less grand, but more personal meaning of philanthropy this spring when they donated their time and talents to the Campus Day Care Center of the First Congregational Church of Corvallis. The day care center needed new paint on furniture and walls. The wish for help floated through a church member to Theta ears and Beta Epsilon responded to the call on a bright Saturday in May. The members spent the morning painting under the supervision of a grateful day care staff.

This small project reached out to the community in a very personal way without any publicity, little fuss, and few dollars. The painting project was small on a nation-wide or city-wide scale, but the children and staff are delighted with the Theta handiwork. Small doses of Theta love can be just as effective as large doses of money when considering philanthropy, or "Love of man."

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The Thetas of Troy joined with Sigma Nu fraternity and organized an Easter Egg Hunt for the Children of Troy Camp, prior to spring break.

The Troy Camp participants are a group of underprivileged children, selected by local school principals. Troy Camp, now in its 38th year, is an invaluable link between the scholastic environment to USC and its local community.

The service project headed by sophomore Emily Arms, was a success for everyone involved. The Thetas and Sigma Nus gathered together in Alumni Park, a little unsure of the events to follow. However, they wasted no time hiding candy-filled plastic eggs, pouring punch and setting up an area to play games with the children.

The hunt itself took only a matter of minutes. Each child, once given the signal to go, ran through the park filling his basket with candy-filled eggs. The search did not end with the egg collecting, for a gold star was mixed in with the candy, and the claimer of the star won a chocolate bunny.

Only after the search for candy was over, did the collegians get a chance to join in the fun. Here was the golden opportunity for the children to tell the Thetas and Sigma Nus what to do, or reteach them forgotten games: "Duck-duck-goose," "Simon Says," and "Red

Alpha Rho's chaplain, Kathy Rundle, planned a special week dedicated to our housemother, Mrs. Margaret Buck. The purpose of "Mrs. Buck Week" was to show our love and appreciation and to let her know how much she means to us. Also, the year 1983 marks Mrs. Buck's fiftieth year in Kappa Alpha Theta.

Each girl signed up on a certain day of the week to do something special for her! All week Mrs. Buck received cards, gifts, visits, flowers, and candy.

In addition, each class as a whole had a special get together for her. Monday the freshmen took her out for ice cream; Tuesday, sophomores served her breakfast in bed and took her to a movie that night; Wednesday, the junior class took her out to dinner and Thursday the seniors followed with another "dinner out" event.

A special cake was made for her and the chapter gave her a Theta charm. Mrs. Buck was very appreciative of "Mrs. Buck Week."

SOUTHERN METHODIST

Beta Sigma's have a lot to be proud of in looking back on the 1982-83 school year. Not only did the chapter receive awards of recognition from S.M.U., but also from our District XII.

S.M.U. recognized Theta's excellence in two different fields. First, the chapter was cited for the most improved scholarship among sororities, and secondly, for the best philanthropy. Kappa Alpha Theta received these two awards over the ten other sororities on campus.

Beta Sigma is now ranked number two in scholarship with a grade point average of 2.989, one quarter of a point from being number one.

The chapter also received University recognition for the best philanthropy. The award is given to the sorority which has raised the largest sum of money donated to philanthropy. To earn this award, the Beta Sigmas worked hard under service chairman Cathy Calhoun. They sponsored an all-school party, serving submarine sandwiches, chips and coke to benefit the Dallas Society of Crippled Children and netting $900. In addition, all members worked at a telethon and eight members and their dates danced all night in a marathon—again benefiting the Dallas Society of Crippled Children.

Before leaving for Christmas holidays, each member donated a Christmas ornament for the Institute of Logopedics; and again at Eastertime, an Easter egg from each girl in the chapter found its way to the Institute.

From District XII, Beta Sigma was given awards for the most improved scholarship as well as the highest scholarship in the district. Proud of their hard earned awards, the chapter is ready to even better during this 1983-84 school year.

STANFORD

1983 is a year that will be remembered by all past and future Phi deutron Thetas as the year that the chapter was granted official recognition by Stanford University. Technically, this means that our chapter is recognized by the university and by the national fraternity on the same terms, and that all are in agreement in purposes and operational procedures of Phi deutron chapter.

For our chapter, recognition opens up many areas of growth. As an official campus organization we can anticipate the expansion of our activities, which will bring new dimensions to our chapter, allowing us to function like Kappa Alpha Theta college chapters nationwide. We hope to hold worthwhile social and service events on campus and to become an integral part of the university community.

The current members of Phi deutron, however, are probably most excited about being able to hold our weekly meetings on campus. Ah, the advantages of recognition! Our chapter has managed quite well in the past to remain cohesive and very active, while simultaneously conducting all of our affairs off campus. Meetings were held in an apartment and meeting rooms, rented by the chapter. Phi deutron owes its sense of continuity and unity, however, to the generous group of alumnae who support our chapter. They lend us their homes, cook for us, and support us in countless other ways.

We are also indebted to all Thetas who worked for our recognition. Senior Theta Cindy Howell has concentrated on recognition for the past one and a half years. She has been our primary negotiator between the university and the national fraternity. Most remarkably, Cindy took this responsibility upon herself, considering it her gift to the chapter. In order to thank and honor Cindy as an exemplar of Theta ideals, our chapter has initiated the "Cindy Howell Outstanding Theta Award," which will send an elected outstanding member of our chapter to Grand Convention every other year.

The chapter also wishes to thank our College District President, Mrs. Marilyn Nichols, and of course, the Grand Council of Kappa Alpha Theta. Without their unfailing encouragement, assistance and cooperation, recognition could never have been achieved.

To quote our adviser, Mrs. Carol McPadden, "the Theta Kite continues to fly even higher over Stanford University."

Recognition is an honor that our chapter has hoped for ever since the installation of Phi deutron in 1979. We look forward with much enthusiasm and optimism to the future of our chapter, and to its becoming a more vital link in the nationwide chain of Kappa Alpha Theta college chapters.

SYRACUSE

The spirit and enthusiasm that exists at Chi continue to be the dominating factor of our chapter. We are proud to announce that we have won first place in the Hilton Cup competition, an outstanding honor at Syracuse University. Each year the University awards the Eunice B. Hilton cup to the over all outstanding sorority on campus. Several university administrators make their decision based on the chapter's involvement in community and university events, scholarship, association with alumnae, and development.

Through various activities, the Syracuse Thetas put their time and effort to work. For instance, we placed second in the annual Muscular Dystrophy Marathon. To raise money we teamed up with the members of Phi Kappa Psi and held several events, including "Fun Around Walnut Park," "Casino Phi Psi," and the "Greatest American Marathon."

Yes, the past year has been very successful for Chi chapter.

TEXAS A&M

This past year for Delta Omega has been very exciting. Throughout the year we participated in many social functions, service projects, and community efforts. At the end of spring semester our determination and hard work were recognized when we were given the Golden Kite Award of the District XII Convention.

Since Kappa Alpha Theta has recently taken a strong interest in alcohol awareness, it seems appropriate to mention our social events that did not involve alcohol. Fall semester we held a square dance at Kurten, a few miles outside of College Station. The dance took place the night before Parents' Day and involved all the Thetas and their dates, plus parents if they wished to attend. This was an excellent way for parents to become familiar with a sorority party without alcohol. Throughout both semesters we had functions without alcohol: including a banana split party which we call BYOB—bring your own banana.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

For 1983 scholarship has been the top priority of Alpha Theta—a 3.0 GPA for the whole chapter. We began with "Library Night." Breaking into five groups, members took pledges to dinner and afterwards introduced them to the five main libraries on our campus. Each week study buddies took our holdover pledges for a night of study, then a yogurt break.

At weekly meetings pledges and actives were awarded apples, popcorn and cookies for making "A"'s on tests. Those maintaining a 3.5 GPA over two consecutive semesters receive our highest honor—membership in our new Scroll Society. First members, to be named at the Fall Scholarship Banquet, received a scroll guard for their pins. For lasting recognition and incentive to others, a plaque with their names will also be placed in the study hall.

To aid in class registration, "Schedule Night" offered seniors from all majors a chance to advise younger girls on teachers and courses. Degree plans and course schedules were also available.

Planning for the future, Mary Miller is assigning each member of her committee five pledges to advise and encourage. "Survival Kits" for each pledge notebook will include information on tutors, school policies, opportunities, study hints, and a campus map. Finally in coordination with Alpha Theta's Pledge Educators and Social Chairman, the Scholarship committee will construct a master calendar from the syllabuses of each pledge. Thus on weeks of heavy testing, we will be able to plan fewer activities. Alpha Theta's new program has effectively put the priority of scholarship back in its proper place: on top.

Thetas of Texas Tech spread happiness among the children of pediatric ward at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, with gifts of stuffed animals.

TEXAS TECH

Teddy bears and baby dolls—these toys touch a special memory in many of our hearts. Perhaps "our friends" took our minds off many a skinned knee, but for a certain circle of children such toys help mend more than skinned knees. The Gamma Phi chapter at Texas Tech saw to it that the children of the Methodist Hospital pediatric ward in Lubbock, Texas had plenty of "friends" to ease their pain.

Members of Gamma Phi donated many of their old toys to the hospital in a service project initiated by service chairman, Jill Johnson. After reliving lost memories and then saying goodbye to the forgotten toys, the chapter presented its gift to the children.

That afternoon resulted in time well spent for both parties. The Thetas did not lose the companionship of Teddy and Barbie; they did gain the friendship of Jennifer, 14 months, and Julie, age 3, two children of the pediatric ward.

The experience is now tucked away in our memory banks. We know that along with the toys passes a lot of love to a special group of children from us older "kids at heart."

TULSA

A week in April was chosen as Alcohol Awareness Week for Gamma Tau chapter. During the week the chapter held a BYOB function in connection with the alcohol awareness program embarked on by Kappa Alpha Theta. The Bring Your Own Banana social was very successful. Each girl asked her date to bring a banana and the chapter provided the various toppings needed to make outrageous banana splits. So successful was this social that we plan to make it an annual event.

That same week Gamma Tau sponsored a talk on alcoholism to which the whole campus was invited. The speaker, from the Tulsa based alcohol recovery program talked on the characteristics of the alcoholic and the program used for recovery from the disease. Many of the facts and statistics revealed were astounding. It proved to be a very beneficial program and well attended by Tulsa students.

UTAH

At the Delta Lambda chapter in Salt Lake City the members held a dinner in appreciation of our marvelous alumnae. Two women in particular were honored at this year's dinner because they have both given so much of themselves to help strength our chapter. One was not a Theta alumna but a great asset to Delta Lambda.

Every so often a young woman comes along who is the living example of the spirit of Theta. She is cheerful, outgoing, resourceful and loyal to Theta in every sense. The Thetas at Utah are privileged to have known such a young woman. She is Betsy Jackson, recipient of the Alumna of the Year Award and a Kennedy Fellowship to Harvard to study law. Betsy has not only been active as a member, she has continued to support our chapter as an alumna. She has held the offices of rush advisor and member-at-large while working as a government researcher and attending night school. Betsy educated the Delta Lambda chapter to the danger of alcohol and clarified the new Utah liquor laws for us. (The strictest in the nation).

In the Theta house at Salt Lake City, lives a wonderful lady we call Mom. Carol Petri has been mom to our Thetas the past eleven years. To show our appreciation, we presented Mrs. Petri with a Housemother's pin. Her service to our chapter goes beyond all duties required of any housemother. Mom Petri generously purchased many items for our house. She attends our joint meetings to keep on top of our activities and interests. Whenever we are worried or confused about a problem, we need only to knock on Mom's door to find solutions. Carol Petri is our Mom away from home in the truest sense. We look forward to many joy-filled years with Mom Petri.

WASHINGTON

The 75 year old Alpha Lambda chapter at the University of Washington in Seattle has had a calendar chockfull of events, many of which support the fraternity Alcohol Awareness Program. These events included activities for family and friends, fraternities and sororities, and alumnae. A very real responsibility was met by these non-alcoholic social functions, that being to provide a safe and pleasant environment for enjoying one another's company.

Intersorority friendship is demonstrated in what is becoming a tradition for the Thetas and Tri Deltas at Washington. The Valentine dinner now held for the fourth year was begun by two friends who met for the first time during rush. The friendship that was started at a rush party flourished and continues even though the two rushees became pledges of different groups . . . Delta Delta Delta and Kappa Alpha Theta. In behalf of a meeting during rush that blossomed into a real friendship the Valentine dinner is held each year with half the Theta chapter going to the Tri Delta house and half of the Tri Deltas coming to the Theta house. It is tradition to dedicate the party itself to one Theta and one Tri Delta who happen to be close friends.

Linda DeMond and Becky Schroeder count the money raised in a raffle by Alpha Sigma Thetas to replace a computer stolen from the Speech Department at Washington State University.

WASHINGTON STATE

Fund-raising projects for Kappa Alpha Theta philanthropies are not unusual for Theta chapters nationwide. However the latest philanthropy effort of Alpha Sigma chapter had a strictly local mission—to raise money to replace a stolen computer which would aid handicapped individuals.

From April 18th to May 8th, Thetas at Pullman, WA conducted a raffle in the community to replace a computer stolen from WSU's Speech Department. The original $2,000 Apple IIE computer, providing communication for non-verbal persons, took three years and hundreds of pages of grant applications to acquire. To continue to aid these disabled individuals, the Speech Department needed $2,000 to replace the computer.

The Greek community has always raised money through various service projects, but we tend to forget our own university which has been hampered by budget cuts. Alpha Sigma Thetas decided to use their fund-raising talents to restore computer service for the handicapped at WSU.

Thetas recognized the need to replace the computer and the entire chapter pulled together to reach the $2,000 goal. Donations of prizes for the raffle, solicited from local business by Thetas were an inducement to ticket sales. A ten foot long thermometer was posted in the chapter house to record the amount of money which was raised on a daily basis. With the enthusiastic effort of all members and the support of the Pullman community, the needed $2,000 was raised by May 8th. May 11th, a special dinner was held at the chapter house for the drawing of the winning names. Speech Department faculty were invited and presented with a check for $2,000 from Kappa Alpha Theta. Alpha Sigma is proud of achieving its goal.

WISCONSIN

This past spring Thetas at the University of Wisconsin held a walk-a-thon to raise money for the National Fraternity's philanthropy, the Institute of Logopedics. For two months, the actives and pledges gathered donations from sponsors to support this event. Recognition was given to the Thetas with the highest number of pledged donations. May 8, the Psi Thetas covered a ten mile distance, walking the bike path around beautiful Lake Monona in Madison. After the three and a half hour jaunt, Thetas gathered at the house to feast on pizza donated by a local businessman for the occasion.

Service Chairman Lindsey Yount expects that Psi chapter will send a sizable sum to the Institute this year.

Suzette Turner, Jennifer Miree and Ferrin Tharkington serving Theta barbecue.

Barbecue at Vanderbilt Benefits Diabetes Assoc.

Every October, the pledges and members of Alpha Eta chapter stage their own version of Oktoberfest—Vanderbilt style. They put on a barbecue right on their own front lawn. The proceeds go to the Middle Tennessee Diabetes Association. Last year $800 was raised for this philanthropy.

On the morning of the event, the Thetas put up a tent and soon they are serving homemade barbecue while a bluegrass band plays in the street. Bales of hay are scattered on the usually tidy front lawn, and the whole chapter, dressed in best western gear acts as hostess to the rest of the campus.

The Theta Barbecue serves several purposes. It is the first big activity the fall pledges experience, and they are given lots of encouragement to take an active role. The barbecue is a link between Thetas and the rest of the campus. The event is looked forward to campus wide. Tickets are sold on the student terrace, and by calling on other Greek groups.

The idea of combining philanthropy, campus relations and a good time is one that is working for Alpha Eta at Vanderbilt.

A SPORTS psychologist has been named at the University of Illinois. He is believed to be the first full-time psychological counselor hired by a major university.

GAMMA PHI BETA and Pi Kappa Alpha at Purdue held a 24 hour "jumpathon" which raised $1,750 to help finance a new cancer ward at a local hospital.

SUMMER STUDENTS at the University of South Carolina attended two-hour classes four days a week instead of the usual 90-minute classes on five days. By shutting off air conditioning in classrooms and offices from Thursday afternoon until Monday morning, the university expected to save $150,000. The students like the long weekends at home, at the beach, or time for doing research.

"WEEKEND COLLEGE" was established first by Miami-Dade Community College in 1965. Since then, they have proliferated throughout the country. Designed for the working adult, courses lead to associate of arts or science degrees.

IS THIS A FIRST? A 30-year-old woman is the athletic director at Slippery Rock College (Pa.), a coed college.

HOT AIR BALLOONING has become a form of "higher education" at Ohio State through the Creative Arts Program. Along with classroom instruction, students assist in the field with setting up, fastening ropes, and packing up. They also "crew" by chasing the balloon in a car.

MODERN GAELIC is offered by the Department of Languages at West Chester College (Pa.)

THERE IS A 40% SHORTFALL annually in the number of electrical engineers graduated. Colleges do not have enough faculty or equivalent to train more. (U. S. News)

TWENTY FRATERNITY houses at UCLA were cited for 180 fire-code violations by the Los Angeles Fire Department and given two weeks to make corrections. Officials said the violations included littering, cluttered corridors, and poor wiring. (Chronicle)

HOME COOKING. Tired of complaints about dorm food, the California at Davis food service asked parents to send in the students' favorite recipes. Evaluated on dietary merit, cost, and taste, 49 were selected. Italian, Oriental, Mexican, and other ethnic entrees were included with "enchilada pie" the most popular.

WILLIAM AND MARY students sang Christmas carols outside the president's home to protest the college's plans to give exams on December 23.

WOMEN GRADUATES in accounting are expected to increase 39% to 43% by 1985 but the demand for accountants is expected to exceed the supply.

THE STEPHEN FOSTER Memorial Theater at the University of Pittsburgh is listed in the National Register of Historic Places. A summer Shakespeare Festival is one of the presentations in the theater.

MARICOPA TECH in Phoenix sells a $11 gift certificate which buys one credit hour of study. The college says they make great stocking stuffers.

Hofstead Scholar makes a "believer" out of her English instructor

Sarah Halin, Alpha Lambda was one of the two Ellen Bowers Hofstead Educational Trust Fund Scholarship winners for 1983. A class paper which convinced her teacher of the value of sororities, also influenced him to write the following letter supporting her application for the scholarship.

Sarah Halin, Alpha Lambda, Washington

February 9, 1983
To Whom It May Concern:

After six years of teaching expository writing, and thus six years of papers (at some point, invariably) on "college life," I feel myself to be something of an expert on the topic of the "sorority experience." And I do not say lightly that of all those papers the one that convinced me that sorority can be a place of growth, of true friendship, of scholarship; a place that nurtures the spirit as we believe (at its best) the college years should, was Sarah Halin's.

Sarah is both an excellent student (G.P.A. 3.78) and a strong writer. Her grade point will attest to her ability and discipline (and, I think to her enthusiasm) in all of her courses, regardless of the subject. In my course last Fall (English 271; Intermediate Expository Writing) she was attentive, disciplined, and involved. She worked hard in class and out, frequently coming to my office for individual conferences in order to look again at what was and wasn't working in her papers. And she learned. She is the sort of student that a teacher is glad to see each morning in the class, and hopes to see the following quarter in another course: bright, optimistic without being blindly naive, and helpful with other students. A delight.

So it was not surprising to me that Sarah wrote such a convincing paper on a notoriously troublesome topic. But this was not simply because she's a strong student;

nor was it (I think now) due just to the fact that she had more to say about the Sorority because of her exceptional involvement (Panhellenic delegate, Rush chairman, committee work). Instead, I am convinced, it has more to do with who Sarah is—and it's because of this, because of the person that she is, that I suddenly understood what "sorority" means. She coaches swim team, teaches ballet, sings, works at a pre-school, spends time with close friends (has close friends to spend time with) and yet is also a center of life at the sorority. But this is because the sorority is the center, is the support system, the family, that allows for this blossoming. It helps Sarah be the person she is. If I may take the liberty of quoting from her own paper on the subject, at a point where she slips into a personal voice:

My life includes a learning that involves everything I've brought up in this paper, and more; it is learning to live, day by day and grow in the process. But my growth stems from here, from home, from the people I love. And I have found this home. Meet me, the sorority girl.

She's certainly the best argument for Kappa Alpha Theta that I know of.

Sincerely,
Douglas Thorpe
